Welfare Office for Citizens

Who are we

Punto e Accapo is a welfare office in the very heart of Naples, whose aim is to meet all citizens' needs.

Specialist operators are ready to receive the costumers, listen to their needs and put forward potential solutions.

These services are delivered by Social Cooperative Atena, in partnership with other third sector organizations.

Atena is a Social Cooperative operating in the area of Naples, which does its share in building the community's well-being and to the social integration of citizens, by the promotion, planning and realization of psycho-social health services and educational ones.

Our facilities

Listening and psychological support: listening to, reception of and support for minors and adults for broad spectrum issues.

Job orientation: Job orientation and coaching and social reintegration.

Academic support: remedial instruction service organized in synergy with local schools.

Access to microcredit: start-up and development of micro-enterprises and professional support in accessing the funding sources.

Intercultural mediation and legal support: assistance to immigrants in the integration process and legal support.

On occasion of the International Days dedicated to social concerns, the office organizes information and awareness-raising events.
